

NAES and Fluitec International Announce Alliance Agreement

On October 3, 2011 NAES Corporation signed an alliance agreement with Fluitec International. NAES is the world's leading provider of comprehensive services to industries that generate or consume power. For over 30 years, NAES has specialized in providing services centered on safe, reliable and cost-effective performance including operations and maintenance; retrofit and maintenance services; on-site turbine inspection/overhaul services; staffing solutions; and customized services designed to improve plant and personnel effectiveness. Fluitec is the world leader in the provision of lubricant condition monitoring and contamination control technologies to the power generation industry. Under this agreement, NAES and Fluitec are committed to combining the installation service expertise of NAES with Fluitec's lubricant contamination control services.

In addition, Fluitec is becoming part of NAES Preferred Vendor Program under which plants operated by NAES receive economic benefits based on NAES purchasing power.
